MAIN LOBBY 1ST FLOOR
MIAMI, FL 33186
USA

On (Date): Tuesday, March 08, 2022

At (Time): 10:35AM

You are notified to appear before a USCIS officer regarding the application identified above at the date, time, and place indicated above. Failure to appear for the scheduled appointment without prior notification and without good cause may result in the denial of your application. (8 CFR 103.2)

To ensure visitor and employee health and safety, please pay special attention to the sections entitled, "COVID-19 Safety Precautions" and "Who should come with you?"

YOU MUST APPEAR FOR THIS INTERVIEW - However, if you are ill, have any symptoms of illness, have returned from domestic, international, or cruise ship travel within the past 10 days (unless you are fully vaccinated); have been instructed to self-isolate or self-quarantine in the past 14 days, or had close contact with anyone known to have COVID-19 within the past 14 days (unless you are fully vaccinated or you are a health care worker and consistently wear an N95 respirator and proper personal protective equipment (PPE) or equivalent when in contact with COVID-19 positive individuals); or are at heightened risk due to age or an underlying health condition and would like to reschedule your appointment, call the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY 1-800-767-1833) as soon as possible to reschedule your appointment. There is no penalty for requesting that your appointment be rescheduled. Being fully vaccinated for COVID-19 is defined as at least 2 weeks after the second dose of Pfizer and Moderna vaccine, or 2 weeks after the single J&J vaccine.

COVID-19 Safety Precautions - To ensure the health and safety of all who enter USCIS offices, you must take the following safety precautions when arriving for your interview:

- DO NOT arrive more than 15 minutes prior to your interview time. You will not be permitted entry into the office until 15 minutes before your interview.
- If your area has high or substantial COVID-19 transmission rates per the CDC, you and anyone permitted to come with you to your interview (as explained in the section, "Who should come with you?" below) must wear a face covering that covers both the mouth and nose while inside USCIS facilities. Masks with exhaust valves, neck gaiters, or bandanas are not allowed. If you do not have an acceptable face covering, we may offer a replacement or reschedule our appointment.
- Follow local USCIS guidance on social distancing while inside USCIS facilities.
- You may have to answer health screening questions before entering.
- Bring a black or blue ink pen with you to your interview.

Who should come with you? Only the following people may come with you to your interview:

- If you do not speak English fluently and are eligible to take the interview in a language other than English, you should arrange to have an interpreter available by phone. Do not bring an interpreter to the interview. If you need a Sign Language Interpreter or Certified Deaf Interpreter, call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283 as soon as possible.
- Your attorney or authorized representative may come with you to the interview, or be available via phone.
- If you have a disability and have an individual who assists you, that individual may come with you.

If you are applying for citizenship for yourself, you will be tested on your knowledge of the government and history of the United States. You will also be tested on reading, writing, and speaking English, unless on the day you filed your application, you have been living in the United States for a total of at least 20 years as a lawful permanent resident and are over 55 years old, or unless you have a medically determinable disability.

If you filed your Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, on or after Dec. 1, 2020, and are required to take the 2020 version of the civics test, you may now have the option to take the 2008 version of the civics test. To learn if this option is available to you, visit the USCIS Citizenship Resource Center at uscis.gov/citizenship/2020test.

You MUST BRING the following with you to the interview:

- This letter.
- Your Alien Registration Card ("green card").
- Any evidence of Selective Service Registration.
- Your passport and/or any other documents you used in connection with any entries into the United States.
- Those items noted below which are applicable to you:

If applying for NATURALIZATION AS THE SPOUSE of a United States Citizen;

- Your marriage certificate.
- Proof of death or divorce for each prior marriage of yourself or spouse.
- Your spouse's birth or naturalization certificate or certificate of citizenship.

If applying for NATURALIZATION as a member of the United States Armed Forces;

- Your discharge certificate, or form DD214.

If copies of a document were submitted as evidence with your N400 application, the originals of those documents should be brought to the interview.

PLEASE keep this appointment, even if you do not have all the items indicated above.

To request a disability accommodation, go to www.uscis.gov/accommodations or call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY: 1-800-767-1833) as soon as possible, even if you indicated on your application that you require an accommodation.

If you have any questions or comments regarding this notice or the status of your case, please contact the USCIS Contact Center toll free at 1-800-375-5283. If you are hearing impaired, please call the USCIS Relay Texas at 1-800-800-8000. Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

USCIS encourages you to sign up for a USCIS online account. To learn more about creating an account and the benefits, go to <https://www.uscis.gov/file-online>.
